SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – 28th July 2019

Lord teach us to pray...

Today's Gospel is St Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer. The version we are familiar with comes from St Matthew's Gospel. So, why the difference? The Holy Spirit, the ultimate author of Sacred Scripture, used the Gospel writers, to present the teachings of Jesus to various groups of people and to incorporate into their presentations an inspired understanding of the Jesus' own words. St Matthew wrote for Christians of Jewish origin, St Luke for Christians of Gentile origin. St Matthew emphasised that Jesus was the fulfilment of the Jewish Scriptures. St Luke wrote for people who knew almost nothing of the Jewish scriptures, but who had a deep understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit. They believed that the Holy Spirit called them to faith and sustained them just as He had called the people of so many nations to faith on Pentecost Sunday. St Luke's version recognises that true power is not to be found in an earthly empire and that true happiness is not to be found in possessions. Let us pray that we might take steps away from materialism and into love, away from possessions into God's Kingdom.

...ask and it will be given to you!

UPDATE.....PILGRIMAGES 2020 / 2021 –

We are hoping to go on pilgrimage to the Holy Land again in 2021, all things being equal. Next year, 2020, there is a possibility of a pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi in the first week of October. This would be 4 nights in Rome and 3 nights in Assisi. The cost at present would be about £1250 which includes everything except lunches. I'd be very interested to know if anyone would find this attractive (the price very much depends on how the pound weathers the current political ups and downs). The courier is very experienced and I've known him since I was in Rome in the 1990's.

We have now had some interest in this and a programme for the trip will follow soon.

The sign-up sheet is still in church if anyone else would like to register their possible interest - please let me know as soon as you can so I can book it with the travel company. Fr Hugh
