

LIVE SIMPLY: If you would like to have an evening or more on this visit the Global Caring site, or find it on The Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales site. There are three short films with discussion points after each film. You could do this over an evening or space it out over more. If you wanted to send in any results of your discussions we could put them on the website or in the bulletin.

SACRED SPACE: The church is shut but the weather is good so far and many of us are out in our gardens. Had you thought of creating a sacred space out there? You might remember that Brettargh Holt had one in the garden going up a small hill as do Cenacolo. Or possibly a small grotto or other focus for prayer. Praying outside is often very calming, which some of us might need just now.

CHILDREN & FAMILY RESOURCES:

CAFOD have a very good website offering children's liturgy for use at home.

Martin at Ten: Ten is making available for free their daily prayers resources: <https://www.tentenresources.co.uk/primary-subscription/prayers-for-home/daily-prayers-for-home/> and their Family Liturgy for Sundays: <https://www.tentenresources.co.uk/primary-subscription/prayers-for-home/sunday-liturgy-for-families/>

Catholic Icing has lots of craft activities for Easter for home and school: <https://www.catholicicing.com/coronavirus-home-resources-for-catholics/>

Saddleback Kids has an animation of the Easter story available for free on YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HL8R158Ujp4>

The God who Speaks now have a section on the Word at home: <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/home/events/the-god-who-speaks/word-at-home/>

Wintershall have some workshop material for families to use at home up to Easter and beyond: <https://www.wintershall-education.com/resources/resources-family/>

HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Serving Kendal and Sedbergh

EASTER SUNDAY - 12th April 2020

TODAY'S READINGS:

No more we doubt Thee, glorious Prince of life...

The Forty Days of Lent are over! Christ's Sacrifice is complete, His tomb empty, and we remain. A transformation has begun. Jesus lives and we rejoice! The Father raised Jesus from the dead. The Father and Son have given their Spirit to all who have a living faith in Jesus. Yet, we can never forget the events of Holy Week. The Passion and Death of Jesus are as much a part of us as His Resurrection. We are united to Him. There are many people who longing for joy and freedom at this time. There are many poor people, sick people, people marginalised by society all needing transformation in their lives. Offering help doesn't just mean their immediate problems are solved, but allows people to experience Jesus present in their neighbours, friends and even in total strangers. This teaches us all that there are no strangers in the Body of Christ. To be Catholic is to be universal. We are Catholic when we are united to Jesus and His death and His life are reflected in every action of our lives. We are not Catholic for ourselves but for others. The forty days are over. The transformation is upon the world. The Lord is risen, His tomb empty and now we remain, in hope...

...Life is naught without Thee; aid us in our strife!

We will be streaming Mass from church on Easter Sunday at 10am. To watch the livestream go to the website, www.kendalcatholicchurch.uk, and you will see in red print Click Here for Mass / Oratory Livestream.

Radio Broadcasts: The Archbishop of Westminster is to broadcast a Catholic service across the UK on Easter Day. Cardinal Vincent Nichols will be leading a service on all 39 BBC local radio stations on Easter Sunday from 8am.

Livestreaming from the Oratory: There will be NO streaming of evening prayer and adoration until Tuesday 21st April, 8 – 8.30pm.

The 6.30am EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE will not be happening but maybe you'd like to get up early and read the Easter story from the bible, pray for the people of the district and shout aloud 'The Lord is Risen, Alleluia!'

Follow my blogs on the website where you can also continue to find the bulletin and prayers for the week ahead. Please spread the word to those that have the internet to take a look & subscribe to future posts if they like. If you know of anyone who you cannot get hold of bulletin but would like one let me know. Fr Hugh

Holy Trinity and St George is now closed to the public until further notice. Every day of the week Father Hugh will be saying Mass privately and will continue to say Mass for the intentions requested. If you wanted to be at a particular Mass please let us know and we will postpone that Mass request until the church is open again.

And don't forget...

If you wish to use standing order for the collection please ring for the parish's bank details.

Take a look at the website of the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales for news on Church matters and the Pope, reading Matthew's gospel this year, etc.

For the moment we are dispensed from the rule not to eat meat on Fridays.

You can still email in with things for the bulletin.

If you would like a mass to be said quietly for a loved one or maybe a special occasion, please pop a note through the presbytery door or telephone.

Please let me know if you are self-isolating, if you wish to. We have set up some groups around the parish and could link you into one of these to keep contact with you. Please keep an eye out for those who may be alone.

Do not hesitate to ring the presbytery - leave a message if there is no answer.
