

MASS SERVICES AND PRIVATE PRAYER.

There is no need to book to attend Mass but if you are looking for a Mass with more space please come along to Sunday evening at 6pm.

Weekend Masses: Saturday 6pm, Sunday 10am and 6pm, and at Sedbergh, 12 noon.

- You need to be wearing a mask or face covering of some sort.
- Please bring a pen to complete the contact slips, one per family.
- Families please sit at the sides and others in the centre.
- Please sit in the middle of the central benches if you arrive early to let others fill in from the edges.
- Collection plate is as you go in or out, or you can ask to complete a standing order. The gift aid boxes are at the front if you have asked for one and not collected it yet.

Weekday Masses: Tuesday – Friday, 12 noon, side benches only are open.

Church is open 10am–12.30pm Monday to Saturday and 2–4pm Sundays. (Many thanks to the volunteer stewards.)

Please be aware of other people's sensitivity and make allowances even if you do not agree. Many people are nervous still about distance and others not wearing masks (which we should be doing anyway even though it is uncomfortable). Thank you for your help. Fr Hugh

HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Serving Kendal and Sedbergh

ALL SAINTS - 1st NOVEMBER 2020

TODAY'S READINGS:

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast...

Today's feast challenges us to become saints! The saints were just like us; flesh and blood, with strengths and weaknesses; people of appetites and longings, ambitions and disappointments, vanities and eccentricities, and indeed like us sinners too. Sometimes those who become saints aren't the ones we expect. They may be the filthy, the rejected, the outcast, the homeless. Like St Benedict Joseph Labre. The son of a shopkeeper, he was called to give up everything and follow Christ. He spent his life wandering from church to church in Rome. A nobody. He rarely bathed, never washed his clothes. Some people were repelled by him. But the purity of his devotion and his love of God inspired those who saw him. When he died, at 35, priests of Rome preserved his filthy clothes as relics, and they buried him in one of the churches he loved. Today, he is the patron saint of the homeless, and of those with mental illness. Today's feast day reminds us, whether we realise it or not: sainthood can be ours. No one is born a saint, but every one of us, by the grace of God, can become one. All holy saints of God - pray for us!

... through gates of pearl streams in the countless host!

CHRISTMAS RAFFLE

Tickets now available at the back of church.

Please take a book (or two!) and return with the stubs and the money in the same envelope and put in the box supplied (not the same as the ticket sale box) or in the collection. Many thanks for this. We now have enough for the hamper prizes which are looking excellent so huge thanks for your kind donations to make this a wonderful raffle. (No more raffle donations required thank you!).

WHITE PEACE POPPIES will be available in church this weekend, 1st November. This tradition started in the 1930s when war widows and others wanted future conflicts to be resolved without violence and with justice. The poppies will be spread out on the benches so people can take one for themselves. Please make a donation if you are able to.
