

KEY AIMS OF COP26 (Glasgow Climate Change Meeting in November):

The main agenda item for COP26 is to finalise “implementation guidelines” for Article 6 of the Paris Agreement, which has to do with “cooperative approaches” to tackling climate change. At COP25 in Madrid no agreement could be found on the contentious issue of carbon markets.

Alok Sharma – the Conservative MP selected to lead the U.K. in its role as COP26 President – outlined 5 priority areas for the U.K. They included: Adaptation & Resilience; Nature; Energy Transition, Clean Road Transport; and Finance.

In the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic and global economic crisis, the focus of the UK and many other governments is shifting and COP26 will reflect this even if it does not become a formal negotiating item.

The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) is an international treaty aiming to “prevent ‘dangerous’ human interference with the climate system”. Since its creation at the Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro in 1992, it has served as the space for the 197 countries who have ratified it to meet annually at the Conference of the Parties (COP) to discuss ways to address the worsening impacts of climate change.

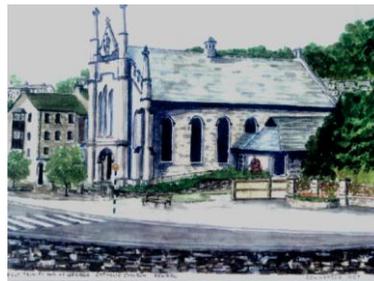

The UNFCCC is composed of governing bodies, subsidiary bodies, and working groups under which key areas of climate action are being negotiated. Since the creation of the UNFCCC, two key agreements have overseen the climate commitments of countries that have adopted them: the Kyoto Protocol (1997) and the Paris Agreement (2015)

SERVERS: We are allowed to have servers carrying the cross, candles and the thurible now. Jill will be in touch with our servers to see if they would like to carry on in any of these roles. Hopefully at a later date the servers will be able to serve as usual.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS: At the moment we have not been given full permission to visit other people’s homes with holy communion, although I think the time is nearly there. If you are a Eucharistic Minister please think about whether you would like to continue in this role and we will meet up at a later date to organise the ministry. If you think you would like to drop out it might be helpful to let Fr Hugh know.

THE NEXT FIRST HOLY COMMUNION SESSION in the parish centre is Wednesday 23rd June at 6pm. The First Holy Communion Mass will be on Saturday 10th July and we have 19 children taking part. Please keep them all in your prayers.

BAPTISMS: We are now able to carry out baptisms where a maximum of 30 people can attend. Please contact the parish office or speak to Fr Hugh if you wanting to organise a baptism.

TODAY’S READINGS:

Who can this be?...

When all seemed too much for them the Apostles saw that trusting and believing in Jesus brings calm and peace. We can find ourselves in what may appear to be hopeless situations; we can find ourselves with hard decisions to make or difficult news to deal with. Such moments form our stormy seas; things that may overwhelm us. In such times we need to know the power of Jesus who, though He may seem to be asleep, is ever in control. While it may be easier to escape or hide from the storm ahead, we must try, like the Apostles, to put our faith and trust in Jesus. He stands up, takes control and graces us with the calm and peace we need to move on to face what lies ahead. Such storms can be a real test of faith, but facing them with Jesus’ help brings rewards, bring us grace and strength. Love, faith, and trust help us endure suffering while growing in union with God and one another. This weekend’s readings inspire us to know that God will guide us through the stormy waters of life. All we need is an increase of faith and grace, and the means to achieving that are freely available to us in Christ.

...Even the wind and the sea obey Him!

This weekend there will be the special collection for Day for Life.

Day for Life is the day in the Church’s year dedicated to raising awareness about the meaning and value of human life at every stage and in every condition.

The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death and this year’s Day for Life is celebrated on Sunday 20th June.

The proceeds of the Day for Life collection assists the work of the Anscombe Bioethics Centre and other life-related activities supported by the Church. Thank you for your support.
