Our Lady's Message to Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti June 25th "Dear children! I rejoice with you and thank you for every sacrifice and prayer which you have offered for my intentions. Little children, do not forget that you are important in my plan of salvation of mankind. Return to God and prayer that the Holy Spirit may work in you and through you. Little children, I am with you also in these days when Satan is fighting for war and hatred. Division is strong and evil is at work in man as never before. Thank you for having responded to my call."

READINGS FOR FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What is the Torah?...

The lawyer we encounter in today's gospel was a student of the Torah, today we might call him a theologian. He asks the question that is always on a theologian's mind: how do we as flawed human beings achieve the fulfilment God intends for us? Quoting the Torah Jesus gives the classic answer; we do so by loving God (Deuteronomy 6:5) and our neighbour (Leviticus 19:18) everything else is secondary. Jesus then goes on to show the practical implications of these commandments in the parable of the Good Samaritan. The contrast is dramatic: the priest and Levite who belong to the class of professional men of religion and the Samaritan is from the despised and uneducated group of Jews who were left in Palestine during the Exile and who's religious "purity" was highly suspect. In Jesus' parable it is this religious outcast, the Samaritan, who has understood the real meaning of the Torah while the professional practitioners of religion seem to be only concerned with the external, ritual elements of it. Jesus is telling us that we should be authentic people of faith who seek not just to know and pay lip service to the true and spirit of our faith, but we should live and breathe that truth in all we say and do.

...It is the Law as found in the five books of Moses.

Today (10th July) is SEA SUNDAY when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea.

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure onboard. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health.

Your support will make a big difference and your donations will enable Stella Maris to continue its important work. Thank you.
Envelopes are in church if you wish to donate, or visit www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or text 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5.

There are a few prayer cards in church if you would like to take one.

READINGS FOR SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let our daily lives...

Usually when we speak of a mystery, we think of a story that needs to be solved before we reach the last page of the book or the film finishes. When the Church speaks of a mystery, she is speaking of a truth that is incomprehensible to reason and is knowable only through divine revelation. The Early Church referred to the sacraments as the mysterries. The main events of the Jesus' ongoing action in our world we call the Mystery of Faith. At the most solemn moment in the Mass, after the Bread and Wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, we proclaim the Mystery of Faith. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians, and us too, that we have received Mystery; the Mystery that Christ is in us. We can go about our day lives so determined to 'do the right thing,' that we can forget about the wonderful mystery that Christ is with, and in, us. Like Martha, in the Gospel, we can be more concerned with doing rather than just being. Martha was doing in her efforts to prepare for Jesus. Mary, her sister, was concerned with being, with being with Jesus. Let us be more aware of Him with us in all we do in this coming week.

...proclaim the Mystery!
