Service for the Commemoration of the Dead

There will be a service in church on Sunday 20th November at 3pm to remember all those who have died, especially those over the past year. We will send out invitations to those families whose names and addresses we have but everyone is most welcome to attend.

Our Lady's Message to Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti October 25th: "Dear children! The Most High permits me to be with you, and to be joy for you and the way in hope, because mankind has decided for death. That is why He sent me to keep instructing you that without God you do not have a future. Little children, be instruments of love for all those who have not come to know the God of love. Witness joyfully your faith and do not lose hope in a change of the human heart. I am with you and am blessing you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call."

HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

6th NOVEMBER 2022
THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord...

The Two books of the Maccabees teach us that eternal life belongs to those who have lived for the Lord and of the necessity to pray for the dead. We are all imperfect and all of us need healing from the wounds caused by our sins, including those sins that have been forgiven. The effects of sin do not just go away because the sin is forgiven. In life we ask the Lord's healing and when our lives have ended we will then depend on the prayers of those still living to continue to ask God to heal the wounds we have inflicted on others and ourselves as a result of our sin. In other words there needs to be healing for the consequences of our sins. November is the month of the Holy Souls and we do them a disservice by presuming - no matter what their lives may have been like - they must be in heaven. It is a disservice because they need our prayers and need us to keep the memory of their goodness alive and before the Lord. The Books of the Maccabees tell us that it's a good, and necessary thing to pray for the dead, this we do especially this month. Let us pray that all the dead be admitted into the perpetual, healing and eternal light of the Lord.

... May they rest in peace!

YOUTH MASS PREPARATION MEETING: There will be a meeting in the parish centre on Tuesday 8th November to prepare for the Youth Mass on Sunday 20th November. From 5pm until around 6.15pm with a chip supper, this is open to the young people (under 18) in Year 4 and upward. It would be great to see you there.

POPE ENVIRONMENTAL CRISIS FRONTLINE LEADERS FILM in the parish centre this Sunday (6th) at 2.30pm. All welcome.

Please return your filled BOXES OF HOPE SHOEBOXES this weekend, 6th/7th November. Thank you.

WARM HUB: As part of our care for others this Winter I am hoping that as a parish we can offer a period of time in the parish centre for people to come in to keep warm and get some refreshments. Possibly Thursday afternoons. Is there anybody who would be willing to help with this on a regular basis? Many thanks. Fr Hugh
