THE POPE'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR AUGUST 2025:

For mutual coexistence: Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.

Our Lady's Messages given to Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti on 25th July 2025: "Dear children! In this time of grace, when the Most High permits me to love you and lead you on the way of holiness, Satan wants to entangle you with the cord of peacelessness and hatred. Do not permit him to prevail, but, little children, fight for the holiness of every life. Thank you for having responded to my call."

MANNA HOUSE FUNDRAISING: As there is now becoming more stiff competition for less available funding for lots of charities, Manna House are feeling the effects of this as their funds decrease.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

3rd AUGUST 2025

TODAY'S READINGS: Working for those we love...

What are our priorities in life? That's the question today's readings place before us. On a practical level, we work hard for those we love, doing our best to provide for them. We hope—for them and for ourselves—for a decent life, so we can care for one another well. We want to support our children's futures and also plan responsibly for our own. Spiritually, we also seek lasting goals: a home filled with love, a place shaped by the sacrificial love of the Lord. Growing in the love of the Lord should be a goal that endures for each of us—along with a deep desire to express that love through how we live, with mutual care and respect. It's easy, though, to lose sight of our priorities—to pour our energy into things that don't endure. As Christians, our lives are bound to the person of Jesus; He lives in us. Our true fulfilment lies in being united with Him—that union is the goal of our Christian journey. And we draw closer to that goal when every part of life begins to reflect the person of Jesus Christ in our words and actions. His love makes this possible—by letting us live in His grace.

...reflects Jesus' love for us!
