HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
17th AUGUST 2025

TODAY'S READINGS: We shall keep running steadily...

Today's readings confront us with a truth we would rather avoid: discipleship is costly. We do not like to hear that following Christ will sometimes set us at odds with those around us—that it may bring mockery, rejection, even persecution. We would prefer a faith that is comfortable, that asks little of us. But the Gospel does not allow that. Choosing Christ means choosing to live by His truth, even when that demands hard decisions, even when the world pulls us the other way. We accept this cost because our eyes are fixed beyond ourselves. We care more for the eternal salvation of others than for what they might think or do to us in this life. In today's Gospel, Jesus says, I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already ablaze! That fire is the burning love of God—a love that has claimed us and calls us to spread it. If we are truly His disciples, we will join Him in setting the world alight with that love, gladly paying whatever price it demands. For the cost of discipleship is fleeting, but the treasure of God's love is eternal.

...in the race we have started!
