TODAY'S READINGS: *God sees everything...

The swindlers we hear about in the first reading—and so many in our own society today—believe that success lies in money made at any cost. Others say it's about intelligence, talent, and the ability to climb the ladder as high as possible. But as followers of Jesus, we have to ask: is that really success? For us, true success can only be measured in the depth of our relationship with Christ. We were created by God and for God—created to love, serve, and live with Him forever. Success is not about wealth or status, but about how fully we let our union with Him shape our lives. And that union is never private. It shows itself in the way we treat others—the poor, the elderly, the vulnerable. It is revealed in our vocations, in our workplaces, in our homes. Are we more faithful, more prayerful, more compassionate now than we were last year? Do others catch a glimpse of Christ in the way we speak, act, and respond? To be successful in God's eyes is to be open—to let Him work in us and through us. That is the only measure of success worth seeking: not what we achieve for ourselves, but how much of Christ others can see in us.

October Devotions: Put the Rosary Back into Your Life
 If the Rosary is new to you—or something you once prayed but left behind—this month is a gentle way to begin again. Simple, steady, and deeply Scriptural, it helps us hold the Gospel in our hands and let Christ's peace take root in daily life. Join us Sundays at 4:00pm in church throughout October. All welcome.

Drawn in to the Mystery

The Mass doesn't end at "Go in peace" — it overflows into life. Drawn into the Mystery is a six-week exploration of the Mass: seeing the signs, hearing the Word, sharing the feast, and being sent in joy. Begins soon — come and be part of the journey.

HOME MISSIONS SUNDAY: This weekend there is a second collection for Home Missions (Evangelii Gaudium Sunday). The origins lie in the work of the Catholic Missionary Society focusing on the evangelisation work that takes place in each parish and diocese. The Home Mission Office no longer exists but the work continues through the Directorate for Mission, promoting the whole ideal of proclamation, evangelisation, dialogue and catechesis.
