Therefore, little children, pray with all your heart that my words may be realized. HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
7th SEPTEMBER 2025

TODAY'S READINGS: *We may be slaves in the world ...

In today's second reading, St Paul writes to Philemon about a runaway slave named Onesimus. While Paul was under house arrest in Rome, Onesimus became a Christian. Paul then sends him back, not as a mere servant, but as a brother in Christ. Paul is not approving slavery—far from it. He is showing that something far greater than social status or earthly condition defines a person. That "something"—or rather, that Someone—is Jesus Christ. Like Onesimus, we too can be enslaved—not by human chains, but by pride, selfishness, or the pressure to put ourselves first. The world tells us to "look after number one," but Christ breaks those shackles. True freedom is found not in serving ourselves, but in loving God above all and loving others as ourselves

....but we are made free in Christ!

Advanced notice and more details to follow.....*OCTOBER DEVOTIONS (each Sunday at 4:00pm)

Throughout October, the Church invites us to rediscover the Rosary—"a compendium of the Gospel."

Here in the parish we'll gather every Sunday at 4:00pm for:

- The Rosary (prayed together)
- A short sermon on the week's Mysteries
- A period of silent reflection
- Ending with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Come as you are; stay for as much as you can.

Let's place our parish and our world in Our Lady's care this October.

And....

"DRAWN INTO THE MYSTERY" A six-week journey into the heart of the Mass

The Mass is not just a ritual we watch.

It is an encounter with Christ, a Mystery that transforms us, and a mission that sends us into the world.

Come and explore how every word, gesture, and silence draws us deeper into God's presence.

Wednesdays at 3:00pm in the Parish Centre (last about an hour)

First Session 1st October. More information will follow.
