HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

12th OCTOBER 2025

TODAY'S READINGS:

Let us give thanks...

Why did only one leper come back to give thanks to God? And what happened to the other nine? Maybe some were angry — angry that they'd been so ill for so long, unable to see their healing as a gift. For them, sickness had felt like a curse. Perhaps others were simply disappointed, thinking of all they'd missed in life, seeing the glass half empty. And maybe a few were just caught up in themselves — like children who've never learned to say "thank you," assuming they deserve every good thing that comes their way. It's sobering, isn't it? Yet it happens all the time. When people focus only on what's wrong, they miss the blessings right in front of them. When we put ourselves at the centre of everything, gratitude fades away. So maybe the real question is this: when I experience God's love, how do I respond? Am I one of the nine who take it for granted — or am I the one who turns back, giving thanks and glorifying God with my life?

...to the Lord, our God!
