This week we celebrate the Glorious Mysteries. From the empty tomb to the glory of Heaven, they proclaim Christ's victory over death and our share in His risen life. With Mary, we rejoice in the Resurrection, look forward to the Spirit's power, and glimpse the promise of our own future glory. These mysteries fill us with Easter hope.

Drawn in to the Mystery Session 5 Wednesday, 3pm in the Parish Centre.

The one Bread makes us one Body In Session 5 of Drawn into the Mystery, we'll enter the Liturgy of the Eucharist — the moment when simple gifts of bread and wine are offered, blessed, and transformed. In the Eucharistic Prayer, heaven and earth join in thanksgiving, Christ's sacrifice is made present, and we are prepared to receive Him who makes us one Body in His love.

HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

26th OCTOBER 2025

TODAY'S READINGS: Let us see, O Lord, Your mercy...

The parable in today's Gospel hits home with us all. Sometimes, we can be possessed by an overwhelming feeling that we are just not good enough, while at the same time we are afraid that if we don't approach God, we might get even worse. On such occasions we must remind ourselves that God is ever merciful, and it is His mercy we need. The Pharisee in today's parable recognises neither his sinfulness nor his need for God. He is too caught up in himself and consequently he is totally convinced of his own righteousness. He takes his place in the Temple and there he delights in himself! He doesn't ask God for mercy; his pride has convinced him that he doesn't need it! He leaves - as he arrived - shrouded only in his own arrogance. The tax collector, however, is very aware of his sinfulness and therefore of his need for God's healing mercy. He dare not even lift his eyes to Heaven. "Be merciful to me a sinner," is all he can pray. The proud Pharisee asked for nothing from God and received nothing; the humble tax collector asked for mercy and leaves renewed and enfolded in God's love and mercy.

...and give us Your saving help!

There will be a special collection this weekend for the Sick & Retired Priests Fund.

Good flight times from Leeds Bradford airport, staying at Hosanna House with a beautiful chapel and fabulous views to the Pyrenees.

Be part of a special week in Lourdes next Summer whether as a carer or as an assisted person, or as yourself, helping people, young and old, to have a truly life-changing experience. For more details please contact Christine Jamieson (07790 503148) or Richard McDowell (northwest@hcpt.org.uk / 07721 925595).

WHITE POPPIES will be available for sale in church from Sunday 2nd November. The tradition of white poppies was started by war widows and others who wanted future conflicts to be resolved without violence. They are not seen as in opposition to red poppies but as a recognition of ALL the people who die in wars and the need to work together for justice and peace.

CHRISTMAS RAFFLE TICKETS will be available from Sunday 2nd November. We are now asking for any kind donations for prizes - wine, chocs, biscuits, toiletries; and any unwanted 'hamper baskets' would be a huge help. Many thanks.

FOUND: There was a piece of jewellery found in church which is now in the parish office safe.
