PENITENTIAL SERVICE – Wednesday 19th November, 7pm.CAROL SERVICE – Sunday 14th December, 4pm.October Devotions Postscript*Each Sunday during October we prayed and celebrated the Rosary.

Our October devotions may have ended, but the Rosary is a prayer for every day. Pope St Paul VI called it a "compendium of the Gospel" — a way of placing the whole story of Jesus in our hands. With Mary as our teacher, we learn to ponder the mysteries of her Son, and bead by bead we are drawn into a chain of love that binds us more closely to Christ — our joy, our light, our strength, and our glory.

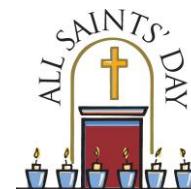

Pray it at home, on a walk, or with a few friends. However you take it up, let the Rosary continue to shape your prayer and strengthen your faith.

- May the Joyful mysteries teach us to say yes to God.
- May the Luminous mysteries help us to walk as disciples of Christ.
- May the Sorrowful mysteries strengthen us in times of trial.
- May the Glorious mysteries fill us with Easter hope.

And may Mary, our Mother and Queen, always lead us to her Son, who is the Good News in person!

Drawn in to the Mystery Session 6 - Wednesday, 3pm, parish centre.

The Mass never ends — it overflows. In Session 6 of Drawn into the Mystery we turn to the most intimate moment of the liturgy: Holy Communion, where Christ comes to dwell within us. From there, silence, adoration, and blessing deepen that abiding presence and prepare us for mission. In Adoration, Benediction, and the Dismissal, we discover how the gift of the Eucharist flows out into daily life.

HOLY TRINITY & ST GEORGE*CATHOLIC CHURCH*ALL SAINTS - 2nd NOVEMBER 2025TODAY'S READINGS:From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast...

Today's feast draws our eyes to Heaven and our hearts to hope. The saints are not distant figures in stained glass but men and women who lived the Beatitudes with courage. They were poor in spirit, trusting in God; they mourned the world's pain and brought comfort; they hungered for righteousness and worked for peace. On the mountainside, Jesus gave us not rules but a portrait of holiness — His own reflection shining in those who follow Him. The Beatitudes reveal what it means to live the Gospel: to be merciful rather than proud, pure in heart rather than divided, ready to forgive, ready to love. The saints show that these blessings are possible in every life. Some, like St Thérèse of Lisieux, found holiness in the small and hidden, others, like St Oscar Romero, in truth and sacrifice. Yet they are more than models — they are friends in Heaven, praying for us as we journey on. Think of your own patron saint: do you ever ask their help? Today we thank God for that countless host who have reached their rest and pray for grace to follow where they have gone.

All holy saints of God — pray for us!

...through gates of pearl streams in the countless host!
