Today's prayer: A Prayer in Honour of Saint Scholastica

O God, to show us where innocence leads,
You made the soul of Saint Scholastica
soar to heaven like a dove in flight.
Grant through her merits and her prayers
that we may so live in innocence
as to attain to joys everlasting.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Scholastica. Pray for us

*St Scholastica, (480 Norcia, Italy - 10th February 543 Villa Santa Lucia, Italy)
Scholastica was the sister of St Benedict. She consecrated her life to God from her earliest years. After her brother went to Monte Cassino, to establish his famous monastery, she lived nearby at Plombariola, where she founded and governed a monastery of nuns. She visited her brother once a year, and as she was not allowed to enter his monastery, he went to meet her at a house some distance away. These visits were spent in conferring together on spiritual matters. On one occasion they had passed the time as usual in prayer and pious conversation and in the evening they sat down to take their reflection. St Scholastica begged her brother to remain until the next day. St Benedict refused to spend the night outside his monastery. She had recourse to prayer and a furious thunderstorm burst so that neither St Benedict could return home. They spent the night in spiritual conferences. The next morning, they parted to meet no more on earth. Three days later St Scholastica died, and her brother saw her soul in a vision as it ascended into Heaven. He sent his brethren to bring her body to his monastery and laid it in the tomb he had prepared for himself. She died about the year 543, and St Benedict followed her soon after.*

O ever Immaculate Virgin,
Mother of mercy,
health of the sick,
refuge of sinners,
comfort of the afflicted,
you know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings;
deign to cast upon me a look of mercy.
By appearing in the Grotto of Lourdes,
you were pleased to make it a privileged sanctuary,
from where you dispense your favours,
and already many sufferers have obtained the cure of their infirmities,
both spiritual and corporal.
I come, therefore, with the most unbounded confidence,
to implore your maternal intercession.
Obtain, O loving Mother, the grant of my requests.
I will endeavour to imitate your virtues,
that I may one day share your glory,
and bless you in eternity. Amen.

St Methodius, Pray for us

Saints Cyril and Methodius were brothers from Thessalonica who brought the Christian faith to the Slavic peoples in the 9th century. Born c. 827 (Cyril) and c. 815 (Methodius), they were sent on mission in 863 to Great Moravia. Cyril devised the Glagolitic alphabet, enabling Scripture and the liturgy to be translated into Slavonic. Their work honoured local language and culture while remaining faithful to the Church. Cyril died in 869; Methodius in 885.
