Feast of All Saints – 1st November

This Sunday's Scripture

Jesus tells priests of the time to practice what they preach and to make the worship of God accessible to the people and not too bound up in regulations. Also, all in authority are to serve others humbly – like a mother looking after her children, as St Paul says - rather than to make a show of their position. It is a lesson for clergy today! But it is also addressed to all lay people exercising ministries or in positions of authority in the church.

Any items to be included in the next newsletter please submit by Tuesday. Please email StCharles.Grange@lrcd.org.uk and in the subject heading use the word Newsletter.

Next Sunday, 8th November is Remembrance Sunday, a day when we commemorate the contribution of British and Commonwealth military and civilian servicemen and women in the two World Wars and later conflicts.
